Boston: Under Sunday laws, commonly known as Massachusetts blue senate, and cooked to a rich brown laws, 1,20 residents of Boston have been hailed into court. The decisassigned to try the cases, were many and varied. The court found, for instance, that the transfer of scenery and other theatrical effects from the aters, after mignight of Saturday, is not a work of necessity which is permitted under the statutes. The collection of offal from hotels on Sunday was declared unlawful on the distinction that it was collected, not because it was necessary feed for the swine, but because of the probability that it would spoil and become useless as a lawful and must be discontinued.
